Unrelenting timeless beauty encompasses every inch of this 1856 historic Spanish Creole style home. Commonly referred to as a New Orleans "Center Hall" style home, this rich and elegant legend has stood the test of time in both quality and beauty. From the priceless views of the Mississippi River, to the intricate wrought iron detailing surrounding the home - the warmth, charm, and personality of this historical gem have withstood the test of time. Featuring approximately 3500 finished square feet, all the modern day amenities have been added, upgraded, or replaced. The modern kitchen features a butler pantry, and easy access to a main level bedroom in the back of the home. Beyond there you will find a large concrete patio and garden area that compares to no other. On the 2nd level, you can enjoy your quiet time from the front of the home overlooking the river from your private 7x22 deck, or go to the rear deck (24x12) & overlook the garden area.
