What a stunning setting! Peace and privacy in the heart of Cape Girardeau. Built in 1989, but with recent updates to the kitchen, baths, etc, this home has spaces to fit your every mood. Want morning coffee while you watch the deer from your screened-in porch? Got it. Want to relax in front of the fireplace on a wintry night? Got that too. A gathering around the large granite-topped island in the open kitchen and living area? No problem. An evening curled up with a book in the study; watching the stars from the primary suite balcony - this house has it all. Natural light floods the rooms and soaring ceilings give you room to breathe. In the mood to make a one-of-a-kind slice of heaven your own? Come see it today.
