Step into timeless elegance with this stunning all-brick ranch, remodeled by designer Terry McDowell approximately 10 years ago. This home seamlessly blends Mid-century charm with contemporary and traditional touches. Inside, the chef's kitchen impresses with custom cabinetry, stainless steel Viking appliances, quartz countertops, and a marble island with seating perfect for entertaining. The spacious living area features a large gas fireplace and natural light from recreated Pella windows, designed to retain the home's original character with modern performance. The private primary suite includes direct access to a backyard oasis. Enjoy a 32x16 saltwater pool with a water feature, hidden automatic cover, and lush landscaping that evolves beautifully with the seasons. The outdoor living area also features a covered pergola and a full sprinkler system. Don't miss this meticulously maintained, one-of-a-kind property that offers both style and serenity in every detail.
