6368 Main Street is a fortress of a home in the East End of Perry County waiting to raise its second family. This "one owner" home offers palatial space for a large family. Huge rooms and a commonsense layout are the name of the game. A massive living room with wood burning fireplace, large dining area/eat in kitchen and abundant cabinet space are among the many entertaining features. Three bedrooms on the main level along with main level laundry and a spacious two car garage make this main level massive. Two additional legal bedrooms in the lower level, a large family room, bonus kitchen/bar space and storage provide a lot of possibilities in this walk-out basement. This home also features a partially completed addition that the original owner envisioned as a beer garden complete with water feature. Two additional outbuildings are included in the property. Yes, you will likely want to add your personal touch to this diamond in Perry County, but look at the square footage and dream a little.
