Looking for acreage in a highly desired area? Take a look at this pristine property located off Hwy. Y, southeast of the Fruitland area. This mostly timbered tract would make a perfect homesite on the ridgeline, providing privacy and seclusion or a hunting retreat. This property is loaded with mature timber, a stocked pond of large-mouth bass, crappie, and bluegill, including numerous cleared recreational trails throughout. For the nature lover, whitetail deer and turkey are abundant. For the outdoorsman, the pasture ground provides areas for potential food plot locations to attract the wildlife. Don't let this spectacular, one-of-a-kind property pass you by. Whether you choose to make this a quiet family retreat or a hunting property, this property will not disappoint you. 41.996 acres, survey provided. County water and electric are available.
