$875,000

5 Bedrooms | 3 Bathrooms | 7,392 Sqft

Nestled on 67 wooded acres this property is a recreational paradise & a hunter's dream. The grounds boast a diverse array of wildlife, including deer, turkeys & more. It backs up to Apple Creek Conservation Area, providing additional hunting opportunities. A wet weather creek graces the northwestern corner where several fossils and artifacts have been found. Located in the esteemed Jackson School district, the barndo house features over 7000sqft with stunning concrete flooring with radiant floor heat. Custom cabinetry & trim work adorn the interior while a storm shelter adds a layer of security. The 3rd level offers ample storage space. Beyond the house is a chicken coop, a woodshed with a stove, a tack shed for equine equipment, a run-in shelter, 2 hay barns & a well house as well as an extra foundation sets the stage for future expansion. With breathtaking views of the bottomlands below, this property seamlessly combines natural beauty with thoughtful design.
