If you want a beautiful Cape Cod home away from the daily rush, this place could be just what you're looking for. This 23-year-old, vinyl-sided, one-and-a-half-story Cape Cod sits on a quiet cul-de-sac and nearly an acre of partly wooded land. The cozy front porch welcomes you into a spotless home with a warm, neutral color palette. On the main floor, you'll find hardwood floors, a laundry room, and a relaxing primary suite with a vaulted ceiling, crown molding, and a lunette window. The bathroom features a tiled walk-in shower with glass doors. The kitchen maintains a neutral look with white cabinets, black solid-surface countertops, and stainless-steel appliances. There's a separate dining room for family meals. The living room is a great spot to unwind after work, with a vaulted ceiling open to the upstairs, a gas-log fireplace, alcove bookcases with cabinets below, and patio doors leading to a concrete patio with new railings and balusters. Upstairs, you'll find a full bathroom and two more bedrooms overlooking the living room. If you need extra space or a home office, the basement is partly finished with a large family room, another full bathroom, and a den. Outside, you can enjoy your morning coffee on the front porch, the screened porch in back, or the patio. There's also seating around the firepit, perfect for relaxing and listening to the
