This small bungalow sits on just under 1.5 acres that the seller fenced for their horses and donkeys. The house needs some work to polish it up but has several high-ticket improvements in place such as newer metal roof, newer vinyl windows, and private well. The detached garage/shop makes good covered parking and a great hobby or workshop area. Price is negotiable so act now if you're looking for a budget friendly location in a rural area that would be great for animal lovers!
