4 Bedrooms | 5 Bathrooms | 5,091 Sqft

Tucked into one of the most picturesque settings, this property offers a rare blend of natural beauty and convenience. Surrounded by a harmonious mix of mature trees and open space, the home sits on 5.76 acres just minutes from local hospitals, dining, and shopping. Warm and inviting throughout, the home is designed for both everyday living and entertaining. The main level provides generous space for gatherings, seamlessly connecting to a beautiful covered outdoor living area with a kitchen that is ideal for hosting in any season. The newly remodeled lower level features three bedrooms, two full baths, a spacious family room, and a full kitchen, creating excellent potential for multi-generational living, guest accommodations, or extended entertaining space. With its peaceful setting, flexible layout, and abundant indoor and outdoor living areas, this home offers endless possibilities for both formal and informal gatherings in a truly serene environment.
