Space. Privacy. Possibility. Some homes are built for a season of life. Others are built to grow with you. Situated on approximately 2.5 acres, this incredibly well-maintained brick home offers over 4,600 square feet of living space, large rooms, beautiful natural light, and the flexibility that so many buyers are searching for today. Whether you're dreaming of multi-generational living, need space for hobbies and guests, work from home, or simply want room to spread out, this property delivers. With full kitchens and laundry rooms on both levels, the walkout basement could easily function as a completely separate living quarters. Step outside to enjoy the sprawling concrete deck stretching the length of the home, overlooking a private setting that feels peaceful and removed from the pace of everyday life. A shop, barn, shed, and plenty of open space only add to the possibilities. It's rare to find a property that offers this much space, this level of care, and the freedom to make it your own. Whether you're gathering generations under one roof or simply looking for room to live life well, this is a place where memories can be made for years to come.
