Welcome home to this hard to find property. The inviting front porch welcomes you home, while the expanded covered back patio provides the perfect place to entertain, relax, or enjoy your morning coffee. Inside, you'll appreciate the spacious layout featuring three bedrooms with a primary suite complete with a whirlpool tub, and a bonus room that would make an excellent home office, nursery, workout room, or flex space. One of the standout features is the detached shop with its own separate entrance ideal for a small business, hobby space, workshop, or additional storage. The shop is equipped with electricity and is partially insulated, giving you endless possibilities. Properties with this much functionality and flexibility are hard to find. If you've been searching for a home with extra space for your hobbies, business, or growing family, this rare Chaffee gem is one you won't want to miss!
