Build the home you've always envisioned on this beautiful 2.79-acre tract nestled in a peaceful rural setting. Mostly level and dotted with scattered shade trees, the property is highlighted by a picturesque row of mature pine trees that creates a natural border and adds to its charm. With no restrictions, you'll have the freedom to build a traditional home, a shouse, or place a manufactured home the choice is yours. Shared well access and a recent survey provide added convenience, making it even easier to begin planning your future. Whether you're looking for room to spread out, enjoy country living, or create your own private retreat, this versatile property offers endless possibilities.
